Urracal

€60,000

Bargain! A rare opportunity to purchase a very large traditional Spanish Village house in this charming Spanish Village of Urracal near the Marble district of Almería and within 50 minutes drive to Mojácar Playa and its surrounding coastal villages.

The property spreads on 3 levels with parts in need of attention. In brief, it comprises a large living room, library, kitchen, 5 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, 15 mts² balcony and a 37 m² patio, etc. It is being sold unfurnished.

This village house benefits from thick stone walls, marble features, rustic ceramic tiles and wooden flooring to wooden beams and a large fire place. As one would expect in a working village, the property benefits from mains electricity, water, and internet and telecommunication services. The village of Urracal is predominantly Spanish and offers all services and amenities, including a municipal swimming pool.

This is without doubt a rare opportunity for those with a small budget looking for a large property in a charming Spanish village. Viewings strictly by appointment only.
