La Muleria

€238,500

La Muleria is a small hamlet about 4 kilometres from the beach and without any amenities, bars or shops. The nearest big town is Cuevas del Almanzora that has everything you need.

This lovely old cortijo has been fully reformed internally and has the possibility of being extended into an even bigger property. The external walls are all original and are stone walls which are roughly 40 cm thick. This means that the insulation of the building is excellent allowing the house to be cool in summer and warm in the winter.

The property is set inside a fully walled plot that is shared with the neighbouring house and has ample garden area as well as a private swimming pool with a plexiglass roof. To access the house there is a large metal gate that is opened manually but could easily be made electric.

The property includes the main house with a built area of 313 square metres (including the patio) and a guest house with a built area of 147 square metres (also including the patio).

The main house has 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms and a cloakroom/ WC, all on one level. There is a big fully fitted and equipped kitchen with an island. There is a large living - dining room with an open fireplace.

Going through to the back of the house is a covered terrace that is a utility area with a washing machine and this leads out to a backyard. At the end of the backyard there are 2 caves approximately 4 metres deep. There are also various other storage rooms.

The guest house consists of 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms with an open plan kitchen - diner - lounge. On the ground floor is 1 bedroom and 1 bathroom next to the diner - lounge and upstairs, on the first floor are the second bedroom and bathroom.

The sale price includes some of the furniture.
