Sierra Cabrera is a unique corner of the province of Almería, where the mountains and the sea meet in a spectacular landscape. The area is renowned by its Moorish architecture, green hills and serene atmosphere which create an exclusive environment, ideal for those seeking tranquillity this close to the coast.

The pictures presented are artist impressions. The properties will have large terraces with breathtaking mountain views. They will be built by the same artisans and professionals who have shaped Sierra Cabrera for years, guaranteeing quality, authenticity and respect for the Moorish style that characterises the area.

The climate of the area is another of its great attractions: with more than 300 days of sunshine a year, Sierra Cabrera offers an ideal environment to enjoy life in the open air all year round. In addition, the future AVE high-speed train station in Vera, located a short drive away, will connect the area with the rest of Spain and Europe making this enclave an excellent investment for the present and the future. If you are looking for a home where the mountains, the beach and nature come together in perfect harmony, this project in Sierra Cabrera is your opportunity.
